

Welcome to your Art Bird Card Nature Cards- Set 1 (2020)

This package contains a set of thirty-six 4"x6" cards with original illustrations or paintings and descriptions of common birds of Southwestern BC. The birds were chosen from the most commonly seen birds during the Metchosin BioBlitz and at Rocky Point Bird Observatory.

The descriptions are written in simple, easy-to-read prose. Each card describes the bird's appearance, habitat and other interesting notes. The cards also introduce and define thirty-six basic bird terms, one term per card. Cards are printed on either waterproof, tear-resistant, card-stock, for outdoor and frequent use, or on thick card-stock, for more gentle users.

The card set was developed as a community-building project between local artists and naturalists and was a joint venture between three non-profits groups: Rocky Point Bird Observatory, the Metchosin ArtPod (Artist Collective), and the Metchosin Foundation (which did a similar project to create a local plant ID set using photographs— these still available through Metchosin Foundation). It is hoped these cards will be enjoyed by educators, families, birders and art enthusiasts across the region.
